

DESIRING A HUSBAND

Heavenly Father, it is written that she that is unmarried cares for the things that belong to the Lord and how they may please Him, 1 Corinthians 7:34. As I wait for my husband, I will put my trust in You and not lean to my own understanding, Proverbs 3:5-6. Lord, I pray that he is a man that puts you first before anything else. I pray that he will treat me as his queen and love me as Christ loved the church and gave himself for it, Ephesians 5:25.

My husband will be a man of honor and well known in the gates, Proverbs 31:23. He will walk in wisdom and wear humility around his neck. He will not be easily offended but will be spiritually controlled and not controlled by His flesh, Romans 8:9 (NLT). My husband will walk in the Spirit and not fulfill the lust of the flesh, Galatians 5:16. As he rises to his position as head of our household, he will cover me with the Word of God and protect me at all times. He will not be slothful but will work and seek to please our family and me and not the things of the world, I Corinthians 7:33.

My husband will be a visionary and seek wisdom from above in every project or task that he partakes of that involves us, James 3:17 (NLT). He will be strong but gentle and compassionate. He will be slow to speak and quick to listen, James 1:19. He will cheerfully give to you Lord and manage money wisely. Lord, I pray that my husband will have balance where he will not spend needlessly, but at the same time, he will not be a miser, I Corinthians 9:6-8.

Father, I thank you for my man of God, and I will wait patiently for him, keeping my eyes on You and walking in purpose, in Jesus' Name, AMEN.
